

MAY 3 1961

Approved For Release 2000/04/13 : CIA-RDP70-0005

X C

CONFERENCE . . . Director Allen W. Dulles of the Central Intelligence Agency (left) chats with Sen. Fulbright (D.-Ark.), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, in Washington.

STATINTL

Senators to Hear Rusk Again Today

WASHINGTON, May 3 (UPI).—Secretary of State Dean Rusk today planned his second trip to Capitol Hill in three days to give Senators a report on the tense world situation.

Mr. Rusk who appeared before a Senate subcommittee Monday to discuss the Cuban fiasco, was scheduled to give the Senate Foreign Relations Committee a general report at a closed session this afternoon.

Although his appearance was not directly related to the Cuban affair, there appeared to be little doubt that Mr. Rusk would be asked to give his version of the ill-fated rebel invasion.

QUESTION DULLES

Central Intelligence Director Allen W. Dulles and his planning deputy, Richard Bissell, were expected to appear on the Cuban debacle for several hours.

When the first session ended, William F. Buckley Jr. said he expected the Cuban situation to be re-

sen. Fulbright said he didn't think "any one person or agency" was primarily responsible. He said U.S. aid for the rebel effort was "decided by the administration as a whole." Sen. Fulbright said he thought the invasion was a "mistake."

STRESS WEAKNESSES

Statements by other committee members indicated the session dealt at some length with military weaknesses of the abortive invasion.

Sen. Frank Church (D-Idaho) said he thought Senators' questions showed they felt the military action was poorly conceived. He said he expected the CIA would be asked to provide more information on the Cuban situation.

UPI Telephoto is involved in military strategy."

"Communism can't be shut down in Latin America," Sen. Church said. "It must be shown up. This should be an object of our policy."

"But when a resort to arms was taken in Cuba, then the error was compounded by allowing a corporal's guard to attempt an army's work."